To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

The Rev. Dr. Van Clef, of Jersey City, we believe, delivered a lecture to the young men last evening, at the Congregational Church. His text was—Psalms, 119:9, "Wherewith shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to thy truth."

It is implied in the text our way needs cleansing, and the way to do it is clearly pointed out. This should be done in early manhood. The dangers that beset young men in the voyage of life were strikingly illustrated by the passage of a boat down the rapids of the St. Lawrence, where safety alone depends upon a sure and competent pilot, one acquainted with all the dangers and able to avoid them.

The Holy Scriptures are the great chart of life.

The main topic of discussion was "The Bible, the young man's guide," and this was taken up under the following heads:

1. The Bible is an infallible guide—infallible because it is the Word of God. An earnest argument was put forth for the authenticity of the Scriptures as the inspired Word of God. The proofs of the inspiration of the Bible were ably presented. These were in brief as follows:

If the Bible is not true, it is a stupendous fraud. But how could so many writers, extending through a period of fifteen hundred years, with no possible chance of collusion, all harmonize so beautifully unless they were inspired?

The internal evidence of the Bible proves its authenticity; for things are therein revealed of which man could have no knowledge without inspiration. The miracles, and prophecy and fulfillment were also considered.

2. The Bible is a comprehensive and perfect guide. The Decalogue, the Sermon on the Mount, and the Golden Rule especially, were cited as containing a comprehensive and perfect guide of life.

3. The Bible is a faithful guide. It shows us just what we are and what we need, and points out the way to attain it. It faithfully warns us of the dangers that beset our way.

4. The Bible is a pleasant guide. As a book of literary merit, it is not surpassed by any books ever written. It abounds in wisdom, beauty, sublimity, poetry, and philosophy, and is an instructive and entertaining companion.

5. The Bible is the only guide that can conduct the soul to Heaven.

The importance of a guide was beautifully illustrated by a French artist wandering in the Catacombs of Rome, where his guiding string was his only safety; and the necessity of a guide through the journey of life was presented if disaster and final ruin were avoided.

A Card.

TO DEMOCRATIC VOTERS,

AND MY FRIENDS GENERALLY:

I have heard a story that I have declined the nomination for Sheriff, in favor of Mr. Place, and of Mr. Soule. These stories are false. I am a candidate, and have not thought of declining or giving up my chances or position to any man, Independent or Republican. I am entitled by my nomination, and therefore claim the support of my party.

F. N. JOHNSON.

St. Albans Aug. 31, 1868.

TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF ST. ALBANS.—We, the undersigned citizens of St. Albans, sincerely believing sobriety absolutely essential to the exercise of good judgment, would most respectfully ask that the Hotels, Saloons and Groceries where intoxicating beverages are sold (in open violation of the laws of this State,) situated within the Corporation limits of the village of St. Albans, be closed on Tuesday September 1st, A. D., 1868, the day of election in the State of Vermont.

S. S. Belard, J. A. Belard, H. M. Stevens, C. D. Ruben, S. S. Bowman, Joseph Brainerd, A. S. Hyde, Wm. A. D. Fuller, L. L. Dutcher & Sons, and twenty-nine others.

The foregoing paper having been presented to us, we cordially endorse the object of its request.

Inasmuch as it is not within our power, we cannot take official action upon it, but we hope all good citizens will be governed by these very timely suggestions.

BRADLEY BARLOW, } Trustees.

CLOTHING.—We presume most of our readers will peruse the electioneering document of Messrs. Morten & Percy in another column. If they do they will know where to go to vote the straight ticket in the clothing line. Messrs. Morten & Percy are young men of our town, recently started in business, and deserving of good patronage. They keep an excellent stock of clothing, of the latest styles, and sell their goods low. Without disparagement to similar institutions in town, we may say at the establishment of these gentlemen customers will not fail to entirely suit themselves. It will, at least, do no harm to try.

GEOLOGY.—Messrs. Gould and Lincoln are soon to publish a new work by the Rev. S. R. Hall, L.L.D., of Brownston; "The Alphabet of Geology, or First Lessons of Mineralogy and Geology." A little work on the Geography and Geology of Vermont, has been for some time in use in the schools of this State. Dr. Hall is a great lover of his favorite study, Geology, and has collected sufficient material to enable him to offer cabinets of minerals, of various sizes, at very cheap rates, to all wanting them. Teachers are furnished at half price. Both a cabinet and one of Dr. Hall's books should be in every family, or at least in every school district in Vermont.

MR. OSCAR A. BURTON, has just made his appearance in the remote parts of Franklin County, distributing handbills, headed "Atwood vs. Barlow," in which there is not one word of truth from beginning to end; and Burton says that "he will defeat Barlow's election, let it cost him what it will."

BURLINGTON.—Hon. Torrey E. Wales was unanimously nominated for Town Representative at a Republican caucus held in Burlington on Saturday evening last. Judge Wales is an excellent man and a thorough-going Republican, and his election will do great credit to the "Queen City."

The Grand and Colfax Club of which Gen. Stannard is President, will parade in torch-light procession in Burlington to-night. The Hinesburgh band and the Westford Drum Corps will be in attendance.

RICHFORD GRANT CLUB.—Hon. W. C. Smith addressed an enthusiastic meeting of the "Grant and Colfax Club," at Richford on Saturday evening last.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dtf-94.

The blushing beauties of a modest maid "are doubly enhanced by the 'luxuriant wealth' of hair which as surely follows the use of 'Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative' as that light follows darkness."—St. Louis Times.

A hint to Ladies.

It is a distinguishing characteristic of a cultivated woman to adorn and beautify her person. In proportion as she becomes refined or debased, she pays more or less regard to her personal appearance. The love of admiration is, as it ought to be, strong in every woman's nature, and hence it is that the decoration of her person is always regarded as of paramount importance. The three most beautiful things on earth are women, children, and flowers—each equally by nature pure and attractive. Woman knows she is beautiful; she loves to be admired by man; endeavors to render herself as attractive as possible to man's eyes, and therefore it is that she avails herself of all the benefits of dress and ornaments. Woman is gifted by nature with great natural attraction. Her complexion is, if not ruined by paint and powder, fair and delicate, her hair abundant and lustrous, and her form the very perfection of grace and loveliness. Woman's chief ornament is her hair. No matter how regular the contour of the features may be—how lustrous the eye—how sweet the voice or graceful the form, if the hair be not soft, glossy and beautiful, the chief attraction is wanting. A lady remarkable for the beauty of her hair, remarked in our hearing, the other day, that she owed to the moderate and constant use of "Barrett's Hair Restorative" a deep obligation, for by it she had become locally famous for the abundance and lustre of her hair. Using it constantly ourselves we can add our testimony that as a dressing and restorative combined Barrett's is superior to any Hair Preparation we have ever used. It is reasonable in price, too, costing only one dollar for a large bottle full of the mixture.—Cincinnati Sunday Globe.

TO THE POLLS!!

ELECTION TUESDAY SEPT. 1.

Look well to your ballots.

Soldiers, remember Belle Island and Andersonville!

Remember the Slaveholders' war of the Rebellion.

Citizens, remember your desolate firesides and the burden of taxes that has been saddled upon you by rebellion. The Country is saved,—preserve it.

Look out for split tickets.

Vote the straight ticket.

Vote the State ticket.

Vote the Congressional ticket.

Vote the County ticket.

Don't scratch.

Vote for town Representative.

Vote the Republican ticket.

Look out for split tickets! the elections will be flooded with them.

Pay no attention to the jugglers' handbills and posters. Don't be fooled.

Pay attention to the great issues of the day.

Don't straggle.

Look out for split tickets! vote right, and a grateful people will send back, from every State in the Union, thanks to Vermont.

Remember

That Republicans are asked to vote for Victor Atwood;
That Mr. Atwood does not profess to be a Republican;
That he is a Democrat;
That he is the Democratic candidate for the Senate;
And that he has no claims upon the support of Republicans.

REMEMBER

That your support is due to the nominees of your party;
And that you would justly require their support, were you upon its ticket as a candidate;

And that, from principles of fair dealing, you ought to vote a straight ticket.

REMEMBER

That if, for reasons that appear conclusive, you cannot support a nominee of your party, you ought not to support one of the opposite party, representing opposite principles. That would be "deserting to the enemy in time of war," and is worthy of political death.

Stand by your principles. Then, if they fail, the fault will not be yours; while, if you desert them or their only present supporters, the fault of their failure will be yours.

"QUIT YOU LIKE MEN."

DESERVE VICTORY.

Taking Medicine to cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of Iron in the Blood, without restoring it to the system, is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone. The Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of iron) supplies this deficiency and builds up an iron constitution.

It is a glorious occupation, vivifying and self-sustaining in its nature, to struggle with ignorance, and discover to the inquiring minds of the masses the clearerulean blue of heavenly truth.

It is to labor, and to labor only, that man owes everything possessed of unchangeable value. Labor is the talisman that has raised him from the condition of the savage; that has changed the desert and the forest into cultivated fields; that has covered the earth with cities and the ocean with ships; that has given us plenty, comfort, and elegance, instead of want, misery, and barbarism.

CANCER, SCROFULA, DYSPEPSIA, LIVER Complaint, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, &c., cured. A book of 100 pages, sent free to invalids. Address: R. GREENE, M. D., 10 Temple Place, Boston, Mass.

DIED.

In St. Albans, on Sunday night, August 30th, Julia C., daughter of Hiram B. and Louisa Q. Soule, aged four years and ten months. Funeral at the residence of Mr. Soule, on Wednesday, at 3 p. m.
